

Sally Racket

1. Little Sally Racket
 - Haul em away
 She shipped aboard a packet
 - Haul 'em away
 And she never did regret it
 - Haul 'em away
 And a haul-ey high-o
 - Haul 'em away

2. Little Kitty Karson
 - Haul em away
 She slept with the Parson
 - Haul em away
 Now she's got a little Barst'd
 - Haul em away
 And a haul-ey high-o
 - Haul em away

3. Her sister Suzy Skinner
 - Haul em away
 She says she's a beginner
 - Haul em away
 But she prefers it to her dinner
 - Haul em away
 So off boys and win 'er
 - Haul em away

4. Little Nancy Tucket
 - Haul em away
 She washes in a bucket
 - Haul em away
 She's a whore but she don't look it.
 - Haul em away
 And with a haul-ey high-o
 - Haul em away

5. Little Nancy Riddle
 - Haul em away
 She broke her brand new fiddle
 - Haul em away
 It's got a hole right up the middle
 - Haul em away
 And a haul-ey high-o
 - Haul em away

6. Pull on the luff boys
 - Haul em away
 That'll be enough boys
 - Haul em away
 And one more time boys
 - Haul em away
 And that's enough for now boys
 - Haul em away!

A Cargo working song

Other names: Haul her away, Haul him away, Little Sally Racket, Sally Racket.

Stan Hugill's several versions of this shanty are "cleaner" than the originals but he often helpfully uses the same rhyming words. Ruder versions may be sung at shanty festivals.

Shantyman Stan Hugill, in Shanties from the Seven Seas, 1994, places Sally Racket as a version of Cheer'ly Man

"It was a common cargo-working song among the timber stowers of Québec and elsewhere.

It was very popular among negro or "chequerboard" crews. It is of West Indian origin, hailing either from Barbados or Jamaica. I learnt it from Captain Harding.

"The tune has something in common with that of the Jamaican song Missy Ramgoat and also with Hill an' Gully Rider .. [It featured in the film Moby Dick."
