

Whip Jamboree

1. Now me lads be of good cheer
For the Irish coast we'll soon draw near;
In a few days' time we'll sight Cape Clear.
Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down
behind,

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh, Jenny get your oat cakes done.

2. Now Cape Clear it is in sight,
We'll be off Holyhead by tomorrow night,
And we'll steer a course for the old Rock
Light,
Ah Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down
behind,

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh, Jenny get your oat cakes done.

3. Now my lads we're off Holyhead;
No more salt beef, or weevilly bread.
One man in the chains to heave the lead,
Oh Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down
behind,

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh, Jenny get your oat cakes done.

4. Now my boys we're off Old Perch Rock,
All hammocks tied, and all chests locked.
We'll haul her into the Waterloo Dock,
Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down
behind,

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh, Jenny get your oat cakes done.

5. Now my lads we're all in dock
We'll be off to Dan Lowrie's on the spot;
And there we'll sup a big pint pot
Oh Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down
behind,

Whip jamboree, whip jamboree,
Oh, Jenny get your oat cakes done.

Notes on the words

Place names - as is often the case, the places mentioned in the verses varied to suit a ship's destination.

Weevilly bread - weevils lived in the bread - or ship's biscuit - and were not welcomed by the sailors.

Variations in last lines:

Jenny get your oat-cakes done.
Jenny keep your old kegs warm. (kegs=legs)
Come and get your oats, my son.

Jenny keep your ring-tail warm.
Jenny keep your tail piece warm.
Jenny keep your arse-hole warm.

Variations in the chorus line two:

Oh you pig-tailed sailor, hanging down behind,
Oh you long-tailed black man, poke it up behind,

Oat cakes - There is a minstrel tune by Joel Sweeney (1810-1860)
called "Jenny get your hoe-cake done", hoe cakes
being a southern US food;
perhaps oat-cakes a British mis-hearing.

kegs - dialect word for stomach (1885)
- Liverpool & NE word
for trousers (cf kecks)

It's not known if oat-cakes or old kegs appeared first.

Come and get your oats - possibly a folk-revival attempt to get back to the original implications.

Ringtail - this is Hugill's version of the chorus. Hugill says he has "endeavoured to get nearer to the original than other writers."

Changing one word to 'ringtail' is a clever nautical doubleentendre. A ring-tail was a small jib-shaped sail set aftmost. The allusion is clearly to some two-syllable word for a rear part such as arse. Indeed, ...

Barry on Mudcat heard that Stan Hugill intimated to another that arsehole was the camouflaged word.
